

^a CDG presentations are variable and often not recognizable on clinical grounds alone

^b One or more of the following: elevated ALP, reduced clotting factors, reduced blood/urine manganese, endocrine abnormalities, proteinuria

^c Frontiers in Congenital Disorders of Glycosylation (FCDGC)

^d Secondary causes include alcohol abuse, liver dysfunction