MAYO CLINIC LABORATORIES

TEST DELAY

Notification Date: November 5, 2026
Effective Date: Immediately

Peripheral Nervous System Demyelinating Neuropathy, Autoimmune Evaluation, Serum

Test ID: DMNES

Explanation:

Due to instrumentation issues, results for NF4FS (Neurofascin-155 IgG4, Flow Cytometry, Serum (Non-Orderable)) will be delayed beyond the published turnaround time. Results may take an additional 5-7 days to report, with an anticipated duration of 1–2 weeks for this testing disruption. The remaining components of this evaluation are not impacted. An update will be provided when normal testing operations resume.
